Dangerous Traps

Answers will vary. Only use the ideas listed if your group gets stuck.

No one is listening to the substitute teacher.

- What are some good choices you could make? Listen to the teacher, kindly remind your friends to listen to the teacher, help the teacher, write the teacher a kind note to encourage them, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You might feel like you don't have to listen either, you might get angry and yell at other kids to quit it and listen up, etc.

Nobody is nice to the new kid.

- What are some good choices you could make? Ask the new kid to play with you at recess, sit with them, pick them to be your partner, give them a compliment, let a trusted adult know what's going on, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You act rude to the new kid too, ignore the new kid, laugh at your friends' mean jokes and make the new kid feel worse, etc.

Some of your friends don't believe in Jesus.

- What are some good choices you could make? Be kind and loving to your friends to show them what Jesus is like, invite them to church with you, pray for them, ask God to help you talk about Jesus with them, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You might rudely argue or tell them they're wrong, never talk to them again, pretend that you don't believe in Jesus either, etc.

Everyone is sneaking candy.

- What are some good choices you could make? You can choose not to sneak candy, choose to ask for the candy, ask your friends to stop making the wrong choice, let a trusted adult know what's going on, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You might sneak candy too, you laugh at the kids who are sneaking candy, you ask them to share the candy with you, etc.

Your sibling makes fun of you in front of your friends.

- What are some good choices you could make? Ignore your sibling, ask them nicely to quit, be kind to your sibling, go somewhere else, pray for your sibling, let a trusted adult know what's going on, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You might make fun of your sibling, yell at them, tatttle on them when you could just ignore them, hit them, talk meanly about them behind their back, etc.

Your mom said, "Clean your room!" but your friends said, "Play!"

- What are some good choices you could make? Clean your room, remind your friends to respect your mom, let your friends know you'll play after you clean your room, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You might disobey your mom, complain about her, talk back to her or be disrespectful, you might feel sorry for yourself, etc.

Your friend wants you to watch a video with them that you think isn't OK for kids.

- What are some good choices you could make? Be honest that you're not comfortable watching the video, ask to watch something else, go to another room while they watch it, let a trusted adult know, etc.
- What are some poor choices you might make? You watch the video anyway, you act rudely to your friend about it, you don't talk to a trusted adult about it so you keep feeling guilty inside, etc.
